CONCORDIA WRESTLERS EARN TITLE DRAW

Defending C.I.A.U. Wrestling Champion Concordia University battled to a 22-22 draw with host McMaster University at this year's National Championships, held on the weekend in Hamilton. Coach Victor Zilberman's team was led by Pat Sullivan and Graham Dadswell who captured gold medals in the 68 K and 72 K classes respectfully. Mike Sullivan, Serge Marcil, Mike Enos and Doug Yates each won silver medals for Concordia in the finals.

For the second consecutive year, Concordia's Pat Sullivan was selected as the Nation's outstanding wrestler.

Concordia, the only Q.U.A.A. school to compete in wrestling was handicapped in the meet by having only six wrestlers, two fewer than McMaster.

LADY STINGERS FINISH FOURTH

In women's basketball, Mike Hickey's Concordia Stingers had to settle for a fourth place finish in this year's C.I.A.U. National Championship held on the weekend in Lennoxville. The Stingers were beaten 66-65 by the University of Toronto in the battle for the bronze medal. Concordia also lost to the University of Victoria, the eventual tournament winner, after having dumped the University of Alberta Pandas in the opening round. Both games ended in identical 63-54 scores.

Concordia's Jane Bullock was the tournament's leading scorer with 79 points in the three Stinger games and was also named to the All-Tournament team.
